

INDORE - UJJAIN

Indore – Ujjain (Approx. 65 km / 1.30hrs)

Morning our transport will report at conference venue in Indore & drive to Ujjain begin your day with visit to Mahakaal Jyotirlinga temple. It is the most popular temple in Ujjain and always populated with tourists and devotees. During festival times, it remains crowded with hindu devotees. Later we will visit other temples and ashrams like Gopal Mandir, Harsiddhi Mandir, Sandipani Ashram, Bade GaneshJi, Chousat Yogini etc.

Gopal Mandir - Gopal temple at Ujjain is dedicated to Lord Krishna in blue form. It is also known as Dwarikadhish Temple. Lord Krishna is the lover of milkmaids, the celestial herdsman and the great incarnation of Preserver of the Universe-God Vishnu.

Harsiddhi Mandir - Harsiddhi Temple, in Ujjain is the abode of numerous Goddesses of Hindu Pantheon. One among the fascinating aspect of this shrine is the structure which is made up of a rock smeared with turmeric paste and vermilion .The temple turns magnificent on the eve of the Navaratri festival, when hundreds of lamps on the 15 feet lamp stand being lit together.

Sandipani Ashram - Sandipani was an acharya whose life is closely associated with that of Lord Krishna. In fact, sage Sandipani was the tutor of Krishna and Balarama. The brothers, along with their friend Sudama, went to study at Guru Sandipani's ashram (near Ujjain in Madhya Pradesh).

Bade Ganeshji - Bade Ganeshji Ka Mandir glorifies the city of Ujjain. Ganesh is considered to be the most benevolent God that blesses his followers with wealth and prosperity. He has a very sweet figure with a tusK of an elephant and is considered to be the favorite son of Parvati, or Goddess Durga.

Chousat Yogini - Dedicated to the 64 aspects of the Mother Goddess, this temple depicts them in largely non-representational form: 64 red faces, most of them virtually indistinguishable from each other.

Later we proceed for Indore & drop at Conference venue Brilliant Convention Centre, Indore.
